A way to tell your story and share your experience with K-12 students, in:

Financial Literacy

Work Readiness

Entrepreneurship

How does it work?

Depending on your availability, virtual volunteers can help students in different ways:

I want to help, but I have a busy schedule.

1

Virtual RECORDED VIDEO

Record a video anytime from your home or office on your phone or computer.

1- to 2-hour commitment

In a short video (3-10 mins.), share:

Your expertise OR Your career story OR JA content

2

Virtual REMOTE LIVE

Through a LIVE stream video, you are virtually linked to a classroom of students.

2- to 7-hour commitment (depending on the program)

Depending on your availability, you can:

Beam in for one class session to share your story. OR Lead an entire JA program series over several weeks.

I want to interact and connect with students.

Check out what's available in your community!

Hear about the JA experience and impact you can make...

I appreciate Junior Achievement providing this virtual program for students. It was truly an amazing experience.

– Virtual Volunteer

The students love when an adult from the community comes in and teaches them about “real-life” things.

– JA Educator

I was able to pick a topic I connected to and was given materials to teach from. A small time commitment for a great experience.
